
Privacy Policy

This policy explains what the companies of ITS Academy Inc., Olympus Inc., and IABC Inc, do to keep information about you private and secure. We want you to know how we manage that information to service you and that you have choices about how it is shared. This Policy covered our families of companies listed at the end of this Policy. Please read this Policy carefully.

Q. What information do you have about me?

A. To provide services and help meet your needs, we collect information about you from various sources.

We get information from you during the application process for enrollment. Another example is on any loan application for financial funding.

We get information about your transactions with us and with others. For example, we have your account balance information.

We get information, such as your credit history, from credit bureaus.

Q. How do you safeguard information about me?

A. We take a number of steps to protect the privacy of information about you. Here are some examples:

We want to keep information under physical, electronic or procedural controls that comply with or exceed governmental standards.

We authorize our employees, agents and contractors to get information about you only when they need to do their work for us.

We require companies working for us to protect information. They agree to use it only to provide the services we ask them to perform for us.

Q. Is the information about me shared within your family of companies?

A. Yes. We may share information about you within our family as required or permitted by law.
